The high range of materials in each piece, the modern and very practical design make this home a unique combination in the area and designed to enjoy a well-deserved vacation both in summer and winter.

Everything is very close around it: shops, restaurants, the beach, etc... That is why it is not necessary to use a car. Even though the property is very close to the seafront, the home maintains its privacy and well-being during our stays.

This property also represents an excellent option as an investment for tourist rental due to its location in front of the beach, just approximately 30 steps away and its volume/capacity to accommodate quite a few people.
